

Yawuru Joint Management

Department of Biodiversity,
Conservation and Attractions

NYAMBA BURU YAWURU (NBY)

NBY employs Country Managers who work in the Yawuru Indigenous Protected Area (IPA). The IPA extends over Roebuck Bay Pastoral Station and includes the Birragun Conservation Park and Nagulagun Marine Park. A marine park Joint Management Body involves Yawuru and DBCA.

THE DEPARTMENT OF BIODIVERSITY, CONSERVATION AND ATTRactions (DBCA)

Yawuru Traditional Owners are employed in the joint management program with DBCA, including rangers, an operations officer and a trainee ranger. Each ranger cares for a different part of the parks.

THE SHIRE OF BROOME

Yawuru Minyirr Buru Conservation Park and Guniyan Binba Conservation Park are managed under tripartite arrangements with the Shire of Broome. A Yawuru Park Council, comprising Yawuru, DBCA and the Shire of Broome, have voting rights according to vesting arrangements for the parks tenure

The Yawuru Marine and Conservation Parks are:

Guniyan Binba Conservation Park

The intertidal area of north Cable Beach and Willie Creek, jointly vested with Yawuru, the Shire of Broome and DBCA

Yawuru Birragun Conservation Park

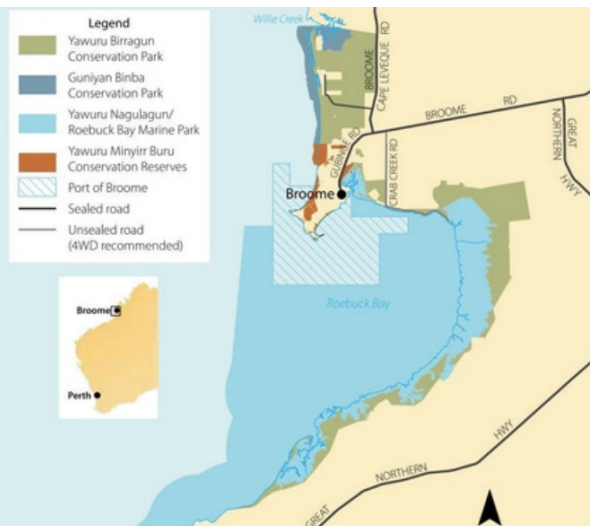

The lands adjacent to Willie Creek and Roebuck Bay, jointly vested with Yawuru and DBCA

Yawuru Minyirr Buru Conservation Park

The lands within Broome townsite including Minyirr Park, jointly vested with Yawuru and the Shire of Broome

Yawuru Nagulagun/ Roebuck Bay Marine Park

The intertidal and subtidal areas of Roebuck Bay, jointly vested with Yawuru and DBCA
